C. A. Swanson Of Lake Tahoe Dies; Rites Here Friday

Colorful Resident Of Lake Expires At Home Monday

TAHOE CITY— Funeral services will be held here at 10 o'clock on Friday morning at the Truckee Colonial Mortuary for Charles August Swanson, 83, one of Tahoe's most colorful and long-time residents, who expired peacefully at his home Monday afternoon, apparently the vicitim of a heart attack.

Eugene Risden will read the last rites and burial will be in the Tahoe City cemetery.

It was around 3:50 on Monday that his neighbor, Phil Spatterwood came over to visit as usual. He found Swanson apparently sleeping in an easy chair but an investigation revealed that he had expired. Constable Harry Johanson was immediately called and Dr. Sidney Kase of Truckee was summoned, only to pronounce him dead.

Swanson known and loved throughout the many years by numerous friends came to America when he was only nine years of age with his parents from Sweden. They first settled in Kansas, when that town was sparsely settled and there they lived in a sod house like many of the early settlers. He shot buffalo on the Kansas prairies and told stirring stories of those early days.

He came to Tahoe somewhere around 1919 and his first job was caretaker for the Pomin Resort near Tahoma where he remained for ten years. Later he was caretaker at the V. C. McClatchy estate in Sunnyside and for others in that area.

About a year ago he was retired as a deputy sheriff of Placer county, after 25 years of service.

He went to visit his daughter in southern California for a while but soon returned to Tahoe.

For many years he was a member of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club and did much for the younger generation, even giving safety talks at school on many occasions.

He was an ardent sportsman and for the two days prior to his death had spent long hours rowing a boat while fishing on the lake. He was widely known as an expert rifleman and was credited with catching one of the biggest fish ever taken from Tahoe—a 35-pounder.

Besides his daughter in Saratoga, Swanson leaves another daughter, Mrs. Irene Blair of Witchita, Kan. and a sister, Mrs. Augusta Wicklund in Kansas and a sister Mrs. Sadie Curtwright in southern California.

Roads In This District Added to County For Tax Money Reason

Approximately 15 miles of roads most of which are already maintained or owned by the County of Nevada, were ordered certified into a county map in order that gas tax money can be drawn on them, at the special meeting of the board of supervisors last week.

Included were Keiser avenue in Truckee, an extention of River street to the Placer County line and past the Stockton Box Company mill, and three streets in the Meadow Park area—Meadow Way, Forest Lane and Ridge Road.

The latter three had been only partially maintained by the county since the formation last year of County Service Unit No. 1.

The supervisors, all present at the meeting, discussed a recent state supreme court decision, the gist of which seemed to be that if a county had been maintaining a road over a long period of time it was obligated to keep on maintaining it whether it was technically a part of the county road system or not.

Good Results As Trout Season On Lakes Is Opened

Many Good Catches Mark Seasonal Opening In District

One of the best fishing seasons for many years on the three lakes in this area Saturday saw thousands of fish caught as nice weather and good conditions greeted most of the anglers.

Both Tahoe and Donner Lakes were well dotted with boats and from all reports the fishermen had better than average luck.

Jack Waggoner reported that a total of nearly 200 fine fish were checked in at his pier alone and Andy's Boat Rentals at Tahoe Vista reports a most successful opening day.

The largest fish caught in the past ten years —a 23½ pound mackinaw—was checked there by Melvin R. Davis of Auburn, who was fishing with a live minnow. He was fishing with George Goldbeck, a former local resident, now living at Auburn.

This was the first time Davis has fished on the lake.

In the balance of the fish many went over six pounds with a heavy predominance of three and four-pounders.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

If our Truckee Chamber of Commerce is to succeed in the aims for which it is organized, then it must have more support from its members. Meetings, held twice each month are disappointing in that attendance is low, indicating an apathy which is proving discouraging to the handful of loyal officers. Truckee definitely needs a strong, energetic chamber—one which can fight fights that ordinarily are carried on by city boards in incorporated district, but if we are to continue to enjoy the work of our chamber in promoting local progress, then we are going to have to lend a hand in its operation. Make it a point to attend the next meeting.

The recent fire which swept over four acres of land near Truckee should be a reminder that the fire season is upon us. This calls for utmost care on the part of everyone. Last summer this area went through the season without any bad forest fires and the only way we can repeat this record, is by close adherence to the rules and laws governing the handling of inflammables and fires in the forest. It is an individual responsibility.

Engle Hopeful On Prospects For Highway Project

Says Work May Be Done On Installment Basis Under Plan

Representative Clair Engle of Red Bluff, speaking before a joint meeting of all service clubs of this area at the Tahoe Truckee High School cafeteria last night, voice confidence that the proposed improvement of US Highway 40 over the Sierra will be accomplished under current and pending congressional legislation.

Engle, visiting his Second Congressional California District, said his group is continuing a concerted effort to convince the defense department that Highway 40 is entitled to preferencial and special treatment as a vital defense route.

The project, he said, is being vigorously opposed by the bureau of public roads, which is not inclined to establish a precedent.

The speaker said that a recent survey by the army engineers resulted in finding that improvement of the route is needed and vital to defense but made no recommendation to congress.

Engle hopefully pointed to the recent appropriation of $150 million for public roads made by the congress and approved by the administration. He hoped that a portion of this money added to that already earmarked for the highway can be used to assist in the project. This might be accomplished, he said, through a sort of an installment program, with sections of the route benefiting annually in event future congresses continue to replenish the fund.

The speaker touched upon local water problems as they refer to the Washoe project, but pointed out that the first step to block this project must be taken with the state through personal contacts and presentation of facts and figures, then have the state work with federal authoriites.

The speaker paid high tribute to local communities for their support of such projects as the schools and hospital, and urged that steps be taken to provide another much desired project—an airport.

Charles R. Heller, president of the Lions Club, host organization, presided at the meeting and Earl Stice was program chairman. The speaker was introduced by Walter Barrett.

The delicious chicken dinner was prepared and served by the very capable cafeteria staff of the high school, under the supervision of Mrs. Stanley Zwarg and won the high praises of the more than 100 club members and their guests.

E. V. O'Rourke was chairman of the arrangements committee. Engle was accompanied by his administrative assistant, Jack Mattison .

Democrats Support Knight in Campaign

Strong Democratic support for Governor Godwin J. Knight at the June 8 primary election in every one of the 48 counties of Northern and Central California was assured by his campaign headquarters announcement of the formation of active Democrats-for-Knight Committees. A Southern California committee is already under way.

Cochairmen of the northern California Democrats-for-Knight Committee are Cyril Magnin, a leading San Francisco Democrat of many years standing and president of the Joseph Magnin Compnay; and Thomas F. Duffy, another well-known Democrat and owner of Duffy Tile Company.

"Democrats in California put the principles of good government above mere party labels," declared Magnin. "Loyal Democrats, like all other citizens, have a keen awareness of a candidate's qualifications. I'm for Knight!"

Swanee's Letter

Tahoe City, May 1st

Dear Tahoeites:

Well, I promised to return to Tahoe with the robins, but because of the light winter I'm afraid they beat me back by weeks. It's certainly wonderful to get back to God's country with its blue, blue skies and heavenly pine-scented forest, although Orinda and Berkeley both have points in their favor, especially when the snow is softly falling here. Left Berkeley a riot of color with flowers of every description in full bloom. Returned home last Monday.

Last night it was reported down to 20 above and it certainly was as cold as midwinter. Snow covered the ground Friday but melted fast and today, May Day, was bright and sunny and much warmer.

Want to thank my good friend, Mrs. Jeanette Mitchell for keeping the column going during my absence. She's a busy girl and it took a lot of her precious time to gather in the items and I think she did a splendid job. Thanks, again, old pal!

Most of the talk this week is about fishing, but most of the boys who were brave enough to venture out this morning EARLY were home again within an hour of two when they found lines gragging icicles.

Largest fish reported caught in the Tahoe City area, that I have so far heard of, was brought in by Verne Daniels, who hooked a seven and a half pounder and two others of good size. His fishing companion, Al Henry, Jr., also caught one over three and a nice four-pound mackinaw.

This afternoon the lake was dotted with small boats and the weather had warmend up considerably.

Jay Shontz, of Jay's Drug in Tahoe City, chairman of the ambulance fund, this week wishes to publicly and wholeheartedly thank the residents of Lake Forest for their generous support of the drive for funds for Tahoe City's fine new ambulance, a Pontiac, valued in the neighborhood of $3,000 and capable of transporting two people at one time. The sum raised by the voluntary contributions and party-giving from Lake Forest totaled $511.69, turned in by the spokesman, Mrs. Martha Snyder. Shontz said that some of the summer residents have also sent in generous donations but more money is needed to pay off the obligation and any sum large or small will be most appreciated. Just make it out to the Tahoe City Volunteer Fire Department and mail to Jay Shontz.

This week a notice is posted on the Tahoe City post office stating that the District Board of Fire Commissioners at their regular meeting on April 30th passed and adopted an ordinance stating that, for the protection of life and property, the officers of the fire department shall have police powers at and during any fire.

I also learned this week that Tahoe and Truckee are about to lose two wonderful people who have rendered invaluable assistance to the schools of the area for the past four years and who have made themselves almost indispensable to the civic life of our joint community. They are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briggs, whose accomplishments I hope to cover more fully before their departure sometime in June after school is out. Briggs who admits a deep fondness for Tahoe and Truckee and a great reluctance to leave, has decided to resume his education at Colorado State College at Greely and will major in secondary education and minor in higher education. Briggs lived at Greely for ten years so is no stranger there. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Briggs also reside at Greely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Henry of Tahoe City returned home from a grand vacation jaunt just in time to experience Tahoe's "unseasonal" cold snap Friday night. They left April 14th and motored first to Las Vegas where they visited the Verne Daniels and the H. Rardons. Several days later they went to Phoenix where they were guests of the Gordon Hilkers at Easter. Mrs. Hilker made numerous friends when she visited at Tahoe several years ago. Next stop for the Henrys was Tuscon where they visited the Horace Johnsons, for many years caretakers at the Stanley Dollar estate here. From there they motored down into old Mexico and southern California, visiting friends along the way. Then on to Costa Mesa where a talk-fest was enjoyed with former Tahoeites, the Carlton Valentines. They sent along best regards to their old Tahoe friends and today (Saturday) took off by plane for a three weeks vacation trip to Hawaii.

Mrs. Gerda Kvistberg who is nursing Mrs. Janet Watson back to good health, reports this week that the latter is making excellent progress toward recovery and while still required to rest most of the day, she will soon be able to receive visitors and be about again. We wish her a quick and full recovery.

Latest word from Mrs. Ray Fellows and son Lewis who are exploring famous European skiing spots, a trip expense-free for Lewis as a reward for shiskiing achievements this past winter, arrived via postal to the Bud Scotts recently. Margie wrote April 15th from Zino and Lech where they were to spend a week, and where Lewis hoped to take some skiing lessons from Provda. They had visited Zurich, which they loved and were still to go to San Anton, Salsburg, Milan, Geneva and then back to Zurich. They'll be returning home sometime this month.

And speaking of skiing, reminds me that a few of our local boys did right well in the Silver Belt Trophy race at Sugar Bowl April 25th. Tying for first place was Bamse Woronovsky, former Squaw Valley boy now at Sun Valley. Then followed a tie for second place and a tie for third, came Mel Hoagland of Aspen and Lake Tahoe Club's entrant, Jimmie Baker. After Jim came John Robinson of Sugar Bowl and formerly of South Tahoe. Dick Buek now of Sun Valley made it in 1:28:2 and Jack Reddish, also of Sun Valley came in in 1:29.3.

Mrs. James Baker and daughter, Yvonne, are visiting at the home of her father, Richard Leuschner in Merced for several weeks. She plans to remain below for some time, going to Berkeley before returning home. Her husband accompanied her to Merced but returned for the opening of the fishing season.

You'll be hearing from me for several weeks yet, then I go to Reno for a two weeks vacation, during which I trust Mrs. Mitchell will again pinch-hit for me. After that I'll return for the season. Call me at Tahoe City 228W with your news. Good luck, good health and happiness to you all—

As ever,
SWANEE

P. S. Sunday mail for the summer starts tomorrow—May 2nd.

NORTH TAHOE

By JUDGE HARRY CHARRISON

Milton Monette of Kings Beach appeared in the Tahoe Judicial District Court last Monday on a charge and complaint signed by his wife, Elizabeth for disturbing the peace. He pleaded guilty and was sent to the Placer County jail for a term of 30 days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lausche are all excited at the visit of Mrs. Lausche's mother who is from Yorkshire, England. She left London by plane last Sunday and reached Reno Tuesday evening. The mother, Mrs. Wheater, had never seen Mr. Lausche or the two children, so no wonder there's excitement around the house. The visitor expects to remain six months.

I tell you it's pretty hard to keep up with the people of North Tahoe. Now I hear that Dr. Frank Gorham of Tahoe City has purchased a home in Tahoe Vista and is making alterations on same. And then again I hear that a well known Reno dentist named Dr. Johannas has purchased a chunk of land at Brockway and it is said another motel is in the offing and will be built by the doc. Glad to welcome these professional men to our community.

The services at the Wee Kirk o' the Pines are still being enjoyed by more new faces in the congregation each week. Also there is a new member in the choir in the person of Mrs. Artie Lancaster. The refreshments after the service are proving popular in as much as they provide a get acquainted period. A beautiful solo was sung by Henry Sams and the pastor. I noticed a very nice carpet has been laid upon the newly built platform in the auditorium. Rev. Covher announced that progress is being made in arranging for the dinner to be held at Cal Vada Lodge and the date has been set for June 5th. This promises to be a special affair as one can always expect if it is put on by Joby Lewis.

Sophia Levra gave me the lowdown on dance festival held in the auditorium of the Reno high school where no less than 1200 youngsters took part and the Tahoe Twirps as the representatives from North Tahoe are named, took part. The young people taking part were Carol Bailey, Richard Parr, Lon Schofield, Joan Decker, Davey Decker, Jock McPherson, Gwennie Mizner, Kathie Graton, Phillip Mandeville and Francis Howard. Johnny Levra called the dances and the sweetest thing, Sophia said, was when the young performers presented them with a box of candy. Very sweet, to be sure.

Well, now it's our genial constable, Dick Lavery, who has a natal day on Thursday. He celebrated his—well never mind. It was his birthday, anyway and I am sure we all wish him many more.

Earl Gray is building, with the assistance of Fred Miller, four units of cement blocks right next door to his real estate office in Kings Beach. This will be a swell addition to the neighborhood.

Pinerest is the cute name of the cabins just built by Joe deGregorio in Tahoe Vista.

Virginia Konozowich, publicity chairman of the committee arranging dinners for the Wee Kirk o' the Pines, informs me there will be a dinner at the church on Sunday, May 9, from 5 to 9 P. M. following which there will be the unveiling of a beautiful painting by Mrs. E. C. Lausche.

Joby and Mrs. Lewis of Cal Vada Lodge have just returned from a trip to Los Angeles where they spent a week on business and pleasure, before starting out on a big season. Joby tells me the entertainment this year will be super, including the famous Mills Brothers and Nat King Cole.

Ned Malla and a friend spent a week up here, they hired a boat and really went to town, bringing some good fish. They are also doing some work around Ned's newly acquired property on the highway.

Had a nice visit with Joe and Mrs. Pelletier of Berkeley during the weekend. They were staying at the Goldcrest Lodge. And by the way Neva (Mrs. Gold) is coming along very nicely. The ankle is mending perfectly but it will be another couple of weeks before tre cast is removed.

What a start for the fishing season. Kinda rough in the forenoon but the afternoon was perfect and Sunday was still better. It was wonderful to see all the boats on the lake and more wonderful to see the happy fishermen coming in with their limits. Really something to brag about when they get home.

It looks as though Bert King is all ready to go as he is putting the finishing touches to his swell new cabins on Highway 28 at Brockway.

Lee Ralston has bought property at Kings Beach and has already started to build a nice new home thereon. Glad to see Leo and Gertha back. The Ralstons have a dress shop in Auburn and Roseville and I am not sure where the others are.

Yes, sure enough saw the John Mason Dixons and they sure look good. I notice Mason Dixon still has a good line. Anyway his constant hammering for the Truckee short cut to be open all year might have borne fruit. It did.

One thing I fail to understand is the number of violators that appear in court for not carrying a driver's license and a number of cars and trucks in California but with Nevada plates. This is a violation, so get wise, obey the laws. They are for your protection.

MOTHERS' DAY SERVICE PLANNED AT TAHOE SUNDAY SCHOOL MAY 9

TAHOE CITY —The Tahoe Community Sunday School will have special Mothers' Day services on May 9th with Rev. Ralph Wetmore of Tahoe giving the talk at 11 a.m.

The choir will sing in honor of the occasion and the small children are also expected to take part in the program.

Sunday school will convene at 10 o'clock.

Judy Thatcher reminds everyone that there is a school board meeting every second Tuesday of the month at the Tahoe Truckee High School around 8 P.M. These meetings are interesting, so won't you come and sit in on one?

The Lake Tahoe Lions are now making arrangements for a big meeting of Lions and their ladies on Saturday May 15th at Cal-Vada Lodge, Crystal Bay. The day after will be taken up with fishing on the lake. This will be a district meeting and is expected to draw around 200.

Proposed New Route For Highway 40 In Vicinity Of Colfax

SACRAMENTO — The California Highway Commission announced today it is considering the adoption of a routing for relocation of a seven mile section of U. S. 40 northeast of Colfax, Placer County

State Highway Engineer G. T. McCoy has recommended a routing located southerly of the existing highway for about the first four miles, generally along the existing route in the vicinity of Magra, and northerly of the existing route for the final mile or so before rejoining present U. S. 40 about two miles west of Gold Run. McCoy was requested to determine if the board of supervisors of Placer County wishes to hold a public hearing before taking further action to adopt a route and declare it a freeway.

Adoption of the routing would provide for future construction of an additional four-lane section of U. S. 40 across the Sierra Nevada. Eight miles of four-lane divided highway have been completed easterly from Auburn to Applegate, and $900,000 has been budgeted for extending the four-lane section from Applegate to Heather Glen, another two and a half miles, construction of which will begin this summer.

Plans of the Division of Highways call for construction of a four lane highway which, in addition to its improved traffic capacity, would shorten travel distance by about a mile and would eliminate many of the sharp turns and steep grades prevalent on the existing highway.

Start of construction will depend on the availability of future state highway funds. The estimated cost, including rights of way, is $4,250,000.

West of Roseville on U. S. 40 construction is progressing on the freeway extending 12.5 miles from Ben Ali to Roseville.

Ski Clubs Merge At Tahoe, Squaw Valley for Year

TAHOE CITY— Members of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club at their regular Friday night meeting in Community Hall voted unanimously to merge the Lake Tahoe Club with the Squaw Valley Ski Club for a trial period of one year, the arrangement to become permanent providing the members decide the plan prove agreeable.

The new club will be known as the Squaw Valley-Lake Tahoe Ski Club with officers and directors to be chosen from both groups.

The plan to merge the clubs has been under consideration for some time and on April 23 a meeting of the board of directors of the Tahoe club was held at Squaw Valley at which time Alex Cushing, manager of the resort and his publicity chairman, Pat Riley, were in attendance. Others present included Gordon Butterfield, president of the Lake Tahoe club; Rick Giannini, Jack Starratt, Carl Bechdolt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Al Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Donaldson and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Heuga, all of Tahoe and Roger Thompson of the Chronicle. Following a discussion, the following suggestions were endorsed: Social membership in the new club $3; FWSA membership, $5 (this to include FWSA magazine) an associate membership for any contributed sum; family membership $1 for each child and $2 for each adult, two adults being required; $2 for each child when only one adult is seeking membership, his fee $3; junior membership $2.

It was agreed that the organization be incorporated and that each club would put up an equal amount of cash for the first year's operation.

Cushing vo l unteered to grant reasonable reduction in the racers' lift fee and agreed a member of the club who resided locally would also receive a reduced lift fee rate.

There will be meetings once a month, one at Tahoe and one at Squaw Valley if agreeable to all.

A committee will be appointed to draw up the constitution and by-laws, with members from both units participating. It was agreed to keep Olympic Hill at Tahoe City in good condition, the sum of approximately $200 being necessary and Cushing agreed to the erection of a new 45-meter jumping hill at Squaw Valley for club meets.

David Gilmore of Kings Beach has offered to draw up the constitution and other legal papers.

Officers of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club are Butterfield, president; Charles Cross, first vice president; Pete Huega, second vice president; Lucille Heuga, recording secretary; Jack Starratt, corresponding secretary; Jimmie Stewart, treasurer; Floyd Carnell, chief of hill; Mrs. Blanche Donaldson, tournament director; and directors at large William Bechdolt, Rick Giannini and Al Henry. Squaw Valley Club has been inactive for some time.

Clarence Steves Will Run For Job InState Assembly

Clarence A. Steves, El Dorado County cattleman, has announced that he will be a candidate for assemblyman of the Sixth District, the position now held by Francis Lindsay of Loomis.

Steves, a native Californian, is 55 years of age and has lived in El Dorado County for more than seven years. With Mrs. Steves and their son, Clarence, Jr., he operates the old Bayley ranch situated between Pilot Hill and Cool on Highway 49.

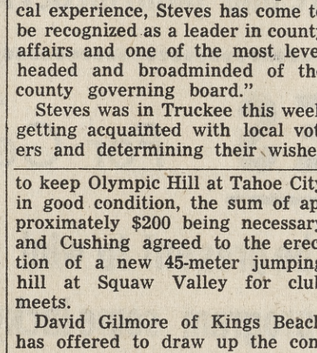

Before devoting his full time to the cattle business Steves had 17 years banking experience both as an independent and branch banker. He has long been associated with, and active in civic and county affairs and is a member of Fallbrook Lodge F&AM, and past president of the Corona Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club.

His present activities are director and secretary of the Georgetown Divide Public Utility District, member of the California Cattlemen's Association, director of the Tri-County Cattlemen's Protective Association (El Dorado, Nevada and Placer counties), and vice president of the Tri-County Planning Commission (El Dorado, Placer and Sacramento counties).

Steves served on the board of supervisors of Riverside County, and upon leaving to make his home in El Dorado County the press had this to say: "The county loses one one of its strongest governors in a long time in the resignation of Clarence Steves—in less than two years on the board, following a career in which there was no political experience, Steves has come to be recognized as a leader in county affairs and one of the most level headed and broadminded of the county governing board."

Steves was in Truckee this week getting acquainted with local voters and determining their wishes

Dear Friends and Neighbors; This being my last letter to you for awhile (our gal, Swanee, is back fit as a fiddle and rarin' to go) so I wish to thank you who have borne with me these past few months in my attempt to "news cast". To say thank you for the many lovely 'fan' letters I've received bolstering my courage to 'carry on'. This past week has given us weather not just what we like—that nasty east wind didn't help our fishermen but there were some good catches from those having faith with Lake Tahoe and staying on to the end of the week-end.

One and all of us are busy in preparation for the coming season.

Heralded by a most unique and impressive innovation of the traditional "flowers and chocolates' ritual, was the announcement of Miss Shirley Flagg's betrothal to Louis Shapman Bortz. The wedding date is set for June 20th. The future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Flagg of Tahoe Park. She is a native of Oakland where she attended Maxwell Park elementary school and then the Tahoe Lake school. She is a graduate of Sarah Dix Hamlin in San Francisco and attended one semester at the University of Santa Barbara and is graduating from the University of Nevada this June where she majored in home economics and a popular member of the Gama Phi Beta sorority.

Her fiance is the son of Mrs. Grace Bortz of Orange and he is a graduate of Orange high school and Santa Barbara University. He is a member of of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Many of our Rotarians enjoyed the three-day convention in Sacramento last week. Bishop Noel Porter opened the convention last Sunday evening and the entire program for the three days was highlighted by a talk by General William Dean. There were fashion shows for the ladies and golf for the "boys". By all reports everyone had a good time.

See the Sturgis Tahoe Park store is open for business as is our friend and neighbor, Harry Mead, who really sold plenty of fishin' stuff. Mrs. Alice Saunders is now employed by Mead.

See Anita Jenkinson buzzing by, getting ready for the season, too.

Spring really is here. Saw Don Huff of Homewood go dashing by.

Zella Mortimer enjoyed an evening of canasta at the Denis Sachs the other night. Hear son Bob did the honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lines of San Fernando Valley were house guests of the Sachs and enjoyed some fishing. Their praises of Tahoe are loud and long.

Don Humphries has returned from the southland to join his little family again. Don will be working for the Golden State Co.

Mrs. Louise Geier, Zella Mortimer, Myrle Rose and Jeanette Mitchell enjoyed a lovely afternoon basking in the warm and ever friendly hospitality of our friend, Pearl Snyder at Lake Forest. The ladies enjoyed making different "objects of art" for the ensuing Women's Club bazaar. More such afternoons are needed.

Was happy to see our Chamber of Commerce office open again and the new secretary, Miss Clair Titus is a very sweet young lady. She came from the bay area.

Incidentally folks, the meeting of the board of directors scheduled for May 7th at Ski Run Tavern has been cancelled because of the meeting of the real estate board at the same hour. The new date is set for May 21.

Sarah and Bill Hunter are back and in full swing even though all their remodeling is not completed. Hear Sarah's mother who came to visit is now feeling much better but still in the Tahoe Forest Hospital.

Drop in at the Donaldson's new cafe and see what our girl Blanche dreamed up during the long winter months. Really something pretty and convenient. Later there will be a drive-in in conjunction with the cafe.

Was sorry to learn of the serious illness of Dr. Gorham's young son but happy to report that he is showing a good recovery.

Dale Mitchell is still courting a nasty spring cold but is also on the mend.

Solveig and Butch Beavers are getting settled again in their sumhome at the William Kent Campground.

Proud Papa Ollie Corona, also our postmaster here at Tahoe City, gives us some mighty impressive accounts of his young son who is already cutting his teeth and being a real man about it.

Sonya Steddom was feeling a little better upon my visit the other day She is confined to her home with a bad cold.

And so friends I now say adieu. Carry on, Swanee. You're the best yet.

Jeanette Mitchell

BACK AT HOMEWOOD

Harrie and Eva Tackett have returned to Homewood for the season. Tackett, a former Truckee resident, is gardener at the resort and his wife is assistant housekeeper. Don Huff, owner of the resort was up from Woodland this week preparing to open the popular Homewood Resort.

TAHOE NEWS

Returning this week to Tahoma are the Bob Campbells from Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. White who spent the winter at Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Huston have come back from Fort Bragg to spend the summer at Tahoe City.

Mrs. Jesse Hale who spent the winter at Oakland, will be at her home at Kings Beach for several months to come.

Henry C. Helm, formerly of Tahoe City has moved from Reno to Sparks, Nevada, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haste are back at Tahoma after spending the winter in the southland.

George Kehlet of Meeks Bay is readying his popular resort for an early opening.

Mrs. Phyllis Kehlet of Meeks Bay recently underwent a major operation in a Palm Springs hospital and is reported recovering nicely.

In 1953, 38,500 Americans were killed in traffic accidents.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) —Many Californians can actually remember when a hunting or fishing trip was a pleasure instead of a nightmare. During those halycon years, it was an event to meet another fisherman on a stream, or another hunter in the fields—an event that called for a few unhurried minutes of talking, smoking or sampling the snake-bite remedy even if there were no snakes in the vicinity.

Contrast this to today's battle for a camping spot, the crowded accessible streams, the hunter in every corner and all through the middle of a rice field and the though that "if those other so-and-sos would only get out of there maybe we could produce", and you have the sorry state of affairs into which hunting and fishing has fallen in California.

Add to this the increasing number of "no hunting" and "no fishing" signs on spots that were wide open and inviting thirty years ago, and it is small wonder that many residents of the state have given up what once was a pleasurable and refreshing sport.

Not all of this, of course, can be blamed on the State Department of Fish and Game, which is headed by the Pennsylvania conservationist, Seth Gordon. But, as pointed out in a recent letter written by Lieutenant Governor Harold J. Powers to Senator Ed C. Johnson, chairman of the senate fish and game committee, "our present program is not porgressing as fast as it should."

There is a serious question, Powers said, as to whether the state is doing everything it can to meet the obvious necessities. "The time has arrived," he states, "for us to stop talking about the problems of growth and start doing something about them."

Powers suggests the use of prison labor in a program directed both to human rehabilitation and conservation of natural resources to meet some of the inadequacies of the state department of fish and game.

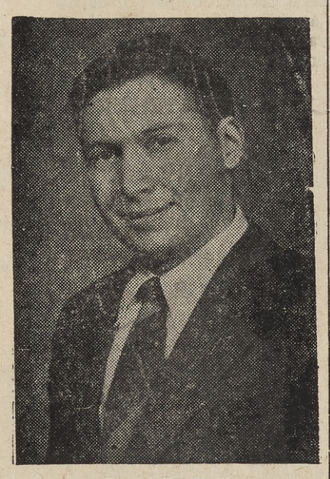

"There is a broad field," he said, "in which crews from institutions could be put to work."

He suggests that Johnson's committee study the possibility of having prison labor work on stream flow maintenance on remote mountain lakes and streams; improve streams and construct access trails to lakes and streams that are now virtually inaccessible; restore water shed areas to improve fishing, provide erosion control; initiate controlled brush burning; remove artificial stream barriers to open new spawning beds and many other items which are now either not being attended to, or which could be given more emphasis.

Then too, as Powers points out, increased demands for more fish planting in accessible waters has arisen because of the great numbers of people now fishing (more than a million last year) and this has resulted in continuous and costly expansion of the hatchery system because depletion occurs to the point where natural reproduction cannot meet the requirements.

"The hatchery system must be continued," Powers said, " or we will lose a great part of the major recreational, social and economic asset. But a well-conceived supplemental program can increase this asset and reduce costs by spreading fishing pressure more uniformly."

As a result of Powers' letter, the senate fish and game committee plans to get into the heart of the fish and game problem, and from all indications, will attempt to do something to divorce it from bureaucracy, with the result that something may be accomplished for the sport.

Suit Filed

NEVADA CITY— A suit in which claims amount to $5,750 has been filed in Nevada County Superior Court by Letizia Kuehn against Thomas L. Stevens, proprietor of the Saddle and Sirloin, and according to the suit, a partner with Letizia Kuehn an dher late husband, Bruce, in the National Club.

Mrs. Kuehn declares in the suit that according to the terms of a contract which she and her husband entered into with Stevens the sum of $5,000 became payable to her as partner, and administrator of Kuehn's estate on March 7, 1954, and that the money has not been paid. She claims additionally that $750 is due in interest under the terms of the contract and asks for costs as well.

In 1953, 2,140,000 Americans were injured in traffic accidents.

SUMMIT SCENE

by FRAN COUILLARD

I can't make up my mind about a season. Winter, summer, spring? for no good reason. Those first soft flakes of winter's frosty coat—its beauty brings a lump into my throat! When breezes warm announce that spring is here—that ermine wrap will ne're be gone, I fear. When summer's sun gilds me from top to toe, and gurgling trout-filled streams toward the ocean go, and foaming waves allure me to the beach, oh please let summer stay, I do beseech. And then comes fall, proud height of seasons mellow, when nature paints in red and gold and yellow, and crispy morns foretell of winter seasons—I can't make up my mind for no good reason.

We've always said that skiing takes its seasonal birth on Christmas Day and dies its seasonal death on Easter. In the years we've lived on this mountain top where snow fall is the greatest on the North American continent (check your statistics) this has been our observation. 1954's seasonal dying was aided by a warm sun that soaked up the snow like a monstrous blotter—one day ski pants, the next day peddle pushers. The usual period of spring fever enjoyed by tired mountain folks who have hosted thousands of snow lovers this past season was cancelled this year as spring housecleaning began. The heat of the summer sun's rays saw to that! No gentle melting and receding of the snow line this year. One day a white thinning blanket—the next day the revelation of the usual thoughtless atrocities. Tin cans, old socks, bottles, gloves, remnants of lunches with hard boiled eggs and banana skins; a ski binding, part of a tire chain, empty cigarette packs, broken goggles, hair barretes, ski caps, empty tubes, broken combs, a soggy powder puff, neck ties. I still say I'd like to throw a mountain folk picnic in the front yard of our winter visitors.

So a complete metamorphosis. One day a hotel full of laughing, yodeling skiers—a ski rack full of skis, a clothes rack hanging full with wet clothes, a cocktail room with bar full of hot buttered rum glasses! The next day spring clothes, even to shorts and halters and a swim in Beacon Hill pool. Empty hotels—as tho' the sun setting in the west was a magnet pulling ski enthusiasts to ball games, golfing, swimming and deep sea fishing. Ski racks are empty, the damp snow soaked clothes leaving their musty aroma behind them, the hot buttered rum mugs replaced by beer and tom collins glasses. No time for spring fever, say we—and on with spring cleaning.

Hotel Soda Springs temporarily closes for its annual cleanup with its 12th annual Easter party to 35 children from ages of one to 13. Easter egg hunt in the lobby for the kids with Lynn Aro finding the golden egg which gave her first prize. Hair curls and fluffy dresses for the girls—new slacks and hair cuts fo rthe young men. After the kids' party the employes party for the purpose of thanking them for a hard season of endeavor.

Beacon Hill waits one week before closing their dining room—also temporarily while the brooms and mops fly. Hot dog party in the circular fireplace for guests and employes.

Donner Summit Lodge cuts its crew in a grand manner as famous violinist Rubinoff calls on his old friend, Bill Rutherford, and gives a concert to calm tired nerves.

And as we copy our notes in walks Stig Bentgar and Johnny Bishop. These two who enter the Donner Trail Memorial race each year (Stig came in fourth this year) have been practicing hard and long in hopes that the Donner Trail race funds would permit them to enter the John Craig Memorial race in Oregon. By consent of the committee John and Stig left last week to compete in the Oregon classic—representing the Donner Trail race committee and financed by them. Stig came in third in Class A with a time of 3 hours, 8 minutes and 40 seconds. What a course we think said with his inimatable Swedish accent "right up the side of a mountain for ten straight up miles—!" John Bishop who hasn't raced as long as Stig on the long narrow boards—came in 7th which put him in number one place in Class B. John's time 4:04:25. The course, 22 miles in length, both boys claim, is much tougher than our 26-mile track. John's time in the Donner race was 5:31:55 for 13th place, which tells a story of how he has trained since the DTMM held here last March 20. We predict that both boys will be among the first over the finish line next year. Sven Johannsen winner of the DTMR, finished first in the John Craig classic also. Sven sends word back that he will be here next year and the year after—to pick up our perpetual trophy. We pin our hopes to "local boys make good" on Stig and John!

Leaving our community for the summer are Jack, Maria and little Kim Patton, who travel over toward Mammoth way to work on their new ski lodge. Moving in as permanent residents are Milton and Maggie Avilla, wonderful and enthusiastic boosters for the Donner area. We sincerely welcome them. Also becoming permanent by reason of buying a home in the Soda Springs area are Ruth and Jack Goss, who have purchased the John Carl home. They still will maintain their living quarters in the Oakland Ski Club while they remodel John's house. These four, skiers all, have worked for the Soda Springs Ski Corporation this past year and have become permanent by reason of their love for the area. We welcome Ruth and Jack! Bob Schriber, ski instructor on the Soda Springs hill announces his intention to remain on our mountain top, too.

We back track to a few weeks ago to tell you of a state chamber meeting held in Nevada City at lunch time. The purpose of the meeting was to tell northern California secretaries of local chambers about publication of a paper bound book extolling the vacation spots of the Sacramento Valley region—its boundries being Lake Tahoe, the Mineral-Lassen recreational area, Yuba City and Marysville region, Sacramento Valley and as far west as Vallejo. Distribution in the amount of thousands will go out of state. Our own area gets its fair share of publicity. As I recall 19 counties are to be represented. I copy a letter from the state chamber: "The state chamber will pay for the initial printing, art work, cuts and other expenses. We should place an order for from 20,000 to 25,000 additional copies while on the press. To do this we shall have to secure additional funds and suggest that your chamber underwrite additional copies to the extent of $100."

Think this book in the hands of various operators along the line would be wonderful to answer the questions of the summer tourist trade which promises to be a record breaker this year, according to statistics put out at the chamber meeting we attended.

Goldie Rowton takes off for a spell and come with a television set—she won it! Great todo, what with Ralph Rowton, Jim Marrott, Troy Grady, Ray Sorani and Bob Bouvier clambering over the ridge pole as they attempted to "bring in the picture". Neighbors held their breath as these intrepids hoisted the antenna without climbers—nor nothin'. And the picture the Rowton's got!

Birthdays we helped celebrate lately: Doris Chaplin, Vi Marrott, Ruth Meador.

Our mother, Mrs. Hack, comes up to spend a few days in the mountains.

Kingvaleites who brave a few still remaining snow banks in the Kingvale tract to check their homes for summer occupancy: the Kingvale "Belles" Frances Johnson and Lucille Murphy; the Art Hendricksens from Davis; the Duncan Gillies of Redwood City.

Seen on the Hill to say goodbye to the skiing season: Miss Starr Walton whose ankle break precluded any idea she might have had of entering the last of the season's races. Starr's getting along fine, thank you.

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

TARZAN AND GOYAT HAD JUST ESCAPED FROM THE ANIMALS WHEN THEY WERE THREATENED BY A HORDE OF SCREAMING SAVAGES!

THE BATTLE RAGED ON AGAINST INSURMOUNTABLE ODDS.

TARZAN CALLED TO GOYAT TO RETREAT INTO THE SHELTER OF THE DEEP JUNGLE!

DICK VAN BUREN JOHN CELARDO

THE LOYAL APE HESITATED, THEN RELUCTANTLY OBEYED HIS MASTER. RESISTANCE WAS HAPHAZARD AND HE EASILY SWUNG INTO THE TREES...

MEANWHILE, TARZAN WAS OVERWHELMED AND TAKEN TO A LARGE HUT IN THE VILLAGE--AND THE INEVITABLE AUDIENCE WITH SLUG STRIPER!
